Mathematics

1075 Morris Avenue
Union, NJ 07083

The New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE) Office of Career Readiness, in collaboration with Kean University, will hold the Many Paths, One Future Career Awareness Event on June 7, 2017, from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the New Jersey Center for Science, Technology & Mathematics at 1075 Morris Avenue in Union, New Jersey. This event is open to parents of middle and high school students.

NJDOE was awarded a grant to increase the awareness of career pathways in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM), Information Technology (IT), Advanced Manufacturing and Transportation, Distribution and Logistics. At this exciting event, parents will have the opportunity to gain knowledge of career pathways available to secondary students and postsecondary opportunities. The program will provide information from business and industry, and higher education on various college degree and certificate programs and the related career opportunities in these programs, as well as other industry-valued credentials. In addition, current college students and recent graduates will share how their choices in high school have helped guide their current career path.

Registration for the Many Paths, One Future Career Awareness Event can be found on the NJDOE's Calendar of Events <<https://homeroom5.doe.state.nj.us/events>>. The registration deadline is May 30, 2017.
