

JDHS News Stories for 4/19/22

- New York Times bestselling author, Alyssa Sheinmel, will be visiting Jonathan Dayton, on Friday, May 6th, via Zoom. The Author visit will take place during 6th and 7th periods. If you have lunch, you may get a pass from Ms. Reynolds to attend. If you have a class, you will need permission from your teacher and a pass to attend. Ms. Reynolds is taking student orders for three of Alyssa Sheinmel's books. The discounted price for books is $8.79 each. The deadline to order books is Friday, April 29th.
- April is School Library Month! School libraries provide free access to technology, as well as new and classic literature for both informational and recreational reading. In celebration, the Jonathan Dayton High School Media Center is participating in Fine Forgiveness Month throughout April. Just bring overdue books to get your fines waived, "no questions asked."

- Prom tickets will be sold in the cafeteria during Activity Period on Mondays and outside of the cafeteria near the back parking lot on Thursdays from 2:45 to 3:45 pm until May 6th. The cost of 1 ticket is $100 for Dayton students and $110 for Non-JDHS students. Please contact Mrs. Malino or Mrs. Lico at jmalino@springfieldschools.com, alico@springfieldschools.com with any questions, or stop by Room 212B for any questions about the forms.
- Seniors who are interested in applying for local scholarships, should submit the forms to the guidance office by May 4th. These scholarships are available in guidance and on the school website. Also, as you hear from colleges a reminder to update your Naviance account. Mark each college as accepted, denied, waitlisted, etc.
